Knights of Columbus Insurance Update
June 2011

Brother Knights and Dear Friends,

If you're like me, you derive great joy from your children (and grandchildren). It's a great feeling when a teacher, coach, or fellow parent compliments you on your child.

We all know that raising children these days is no easy task, especially when the values we're trying to instill in them – concern for others, accepting responsibility for their actions, saving money rather than spending it – seem to run counter to what society is trying to teach them. Yet these are exactly the values that tend to draw compliments from teachers, coaches, and fellow parents.

We also know that the best way to teach is by example. If you carry enough life insurance to protect your family, and if you share – with those of your children old enough to understand – why that's important, you're exhibiting and imparting many of the values you hope your children will absorb.

You'll show them by example that you love them and are concerned about their welfare. You'll show them that you take your responsibility to provide for your family seriously, and that you want to make sure they're provided for even if you're not around.

Sure, they'll probably roll their eyes at you as you're explaining this, and they'll certainly moan and groan if they can't get the newest CD, video game, or piece of clothing. But they learn from what you do – just like they learn from what you don't do. What lessons do you want to teach them?

I want to meet with you to review your existing coverage. Based upon that review, and on the comprehensive needs analysis that I'll perform, free of charge, we'll be able to put a plan in place that will meet your needs, goals, and budget.

For life insurance, retirement products, long-term care coverage, and disability income protection, give me a call and we can set up a meeting to discuss your needs and how you can expand or start your use of Knights of Columbus Insurance products. Let's talk today!

Best Wishes Always and God Bless, Deacon Jim
